STRATEGIC PLAN 2020 – 2024

Croquet Australia is a member of the World Croquet Federation and the World Gateball Union and recognises Association Croquet, Golf Croquet, Ricochet and Gateball.

The Croquet Australia Strategic Plan provides an overview of the collective vision of our member states and provides a vision and direction for the Australian malletsports community.

Croquet Australia operates as the peak body for the administration of malletsports in Australia and proudly supports The Australian Croquet Academy.

It advances and promotes competitive and recreational malletsports, including convening and managing interstate and national tournaments and selection of national teams.

We work collaboratively with our member states to promote all facets of the games and explore opportunities for improvement.

Our Vision

To raise the profile of, and increase participation in the playing of, malletsports.
